ess Office, 11th St. and Pennsylvania Avends

TWO CENTS.

No. 17,770.

WASHINGTON, D. C., FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1909-TWENTY-TWO PAGES.

MEETS HIS CABINET PLATFORM FOR PEACE

Returning From South.

Without Mrs. Taft.

ELLIOTT JUDGE IN PHILIPPINES TIME FOR ACTION HAS ARRIVED

Succeed Judge Willard Recommended by Senator Nelson.

President Taft lost no time on returning | Special Dispatch to The Star. rounded by his cabinet advisers. On his dent Hobbs of Guilford College. way to the city from Charlotte, N. C., which place he left last night, the President telegraphed that he would arrive too late for a cabinet meeting and would postpone it until tomorrow. He reached the White House, however, about 11 o'clock, and considered it advisable to get cabinet business out of the way.

Mr. Taft was feeling well after his trip and much pleased with the cordial reception he had received everywhere in the tory. The memorable achievements of south.

Not Going to Hampton.

who was to accompany the President, is journey, and she wishes to be with the of arbitral justice. President when he goes to Hampton.

until his wife is able to be with him. Judge in the Philippines. President Taft today nominated Judge Charles B. Elliott of the Minnesota supreme court as a justice of the supreme court of the Philippines, succeeding Judge Willard, recently named as federal judge differences. in Minnesota in place of Judge Milton D.

Judge Elliott has a distinguished career as a jurist. He has sat on the bench in the state courts of Minnesota for twenty years, going from the smaller to the ligher courts. He is an author of well known text books, and is highly regarded in the legal profession in the northwest. He was recommended by Senator Nelson, and the President is delighted that a man of such standing should be willing to go to the Philippines and accept the position

FILIPINOS' NEW CAPITOL.

Corner Stone Laid at Manila With Impressive Ceremonies.

MANILA, May 21.-The corner stone of with impressive ceremonies today, Vice sembly, jointly officiating.

President Osmena and Assemblyman Pedro Paterno spoke eloquently of the significance of the event, saying that in placing of the corner stone in the fabric of Philippine independence. They expressed the belief that the structure in the years to come would be the seat of a free government for the Filipinos. Alicanda Roxas introduced Mr. Forbes, who was the last speaker. He said that independence was not a thing to be lightly spoken of, but a goal to be attained by work by proving that the worth of the people was such as would warrant the granting of self-government.

ATTACKS BURGLAR WITH BAT. Nervy Seattle Domestic Drives Thief From the House.

a burglar in the family residence at the story. 16th avenue and East Union street lace | The names of the crew, as given by the last night, knocking from his hands seaman Payne, do not appear on any of Mongolian steamed to comparative safety. and driving the thief from the house. When the man entered the house he turned on the gas in Miss Anderson's room. It was the choking and coughing caused by inhaling the gas that awakened her. Before Miss Anderson State Department he says he has been succeeded in driving the man from the house he had knocked her down with his fist, but she retained her hold on the bat and regaining her feet renewed the fight.

MAY HOLD NIGHT SESSIONS.

Republican Leaders Not Pleased

With Progress on Tariff Bill. The progress which the Senate is mak- Member of Wheeling Council Wins ing with the tariff bill does not please the republican leaders, and it now looks as if night sessions will be held, beginning next Monday. The bill has been under discus-the finance committee to bring about ad- rage, but recently the complaints have journment as early as possible, and unless been many and highly strung, to such those senators who are at present show- an extent that the gallant colonel was ing a disposition to debate every para- moved to act. graph at length change their tactics Mr. As he stands six required to the awn-Aldrich will undoubtedly insist on a has incidentally run counter to the awn-longer session each day. The plan will ings, but he makes a special plea for the list United States Infantry, who was disprobably be to meet as at present at 10 fair sex on the ground that they deserve missed from the army as a result of courto'clock in the morning, adjourn for dinner at 5 and then remain in session from 8 consideration because the new city character denies them the right of suffrage. p.m. until 10:30 p.m. every day in the week except Sunday.

Bull Buffaloes Bagged by Roosevelts. from their camp on the Heatley ranch on about fifty-five miles west, this evening. the Nairobi river. Two bull buffaloes have fallen before their guns. One, the bigger of the two, was brought down by Mr. Roosevelt alone, while the other was bagged by Mr. Roosevelt and Kermit to- sons Lafitte today, but did not get a

Mr. Taft's First Business on Resolutions Adopted by Lake Mohonk Conference.

ABANDONS HAMPTON TRIP AMERICA ASKED TO LEAD

Does Not Wish to Leave City Again Urged to Initiate Move for International Arbitration Treaty.

Minnesota Jurist Named Today to United States Declared to Be in Position to Propose the Limitation of Armed Forces.

from his southern trip this morning at | LAKE MOHONK, N. Y., May 21 .- The 10:40 o'clock in going direct to the exec- principal speakers at the Mohonk conferutive offices, where he sent out summons ence this morning were President Judson for a cabinet meeting, this being the reg- of the University of Chicago, President ular meeting day. In fifteen minutes after Faunce of Brown University, President he had reached his office he was sur- Brooks of Baylor University and Presi-

The Platform.

The platform follows: "The fifteenth annual Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration, meeting on the tenth anniversary of the opening of the first Hague conference, reviews with profound satisfaction the signal advance of the cause of international justice during the decade, a progress unexampled in any previous period in histhis period are at once an inspiration and an imperative call to renewed ef-

The President has decided to abandon has been so conspicuously and so hon-orably identified with the progressive polto deliver an address Sunday to the icies of The Hague, prompt action toward pupils and faculty of Hampton Institute. perfecting the important measures there This is due to the fact that Mrs. Taft, inaugurated and the complete developespecially urge its early initiative in the not yet feeling able to make such a long establishment of the international court

"We further urge the negotiation of a Mrs. Taft is much improved, and will be general treaty of arbitration between all present a short time this afternoon at the nations, and look forward with increasparty which was intended to be a lawn ing hope to the day when treaties of party, but will be held indoors owing to arbitration shall provide for the referthe weather. The President does not wish ence to The Hague of all International to go away from the White House again differences not settled by regular diplomatic negotiation.

The clear logic of The Hague conventions prescribe the limitation and gradual reduction of the machinery of war by the nations parties to those con ventions, corresponding to the develop- Steamer Mongolian Sails Into ment of the instrumentalities of law and justice for the settlement of international Satire Upon Civilization.

"The great armaments of the nations, whose intolerable burdens prompted the PROCEEDS TO THE SOUTH call to the first Hague conference, have during the decade increased so portentously as to have now become, as recently declared by the British foreign secretary. Locked in by Bergs for the Past a satire upon civilization. They fill the world with apprehension and alarm; they create an atmosphere unfavorable to the system of arbitration and their drain upon the resources of the peoples has become so exhausting as to menace all national treasuries and disastrously check the social reforms and advances which the interests of humanity demand. It is the Opening Out of the Floes Allows the opinion of this conference that the time has arrived for carrying into effect the strongly expressed desire of the two peace the Philippine capitol building was laid conferences at The Hague that the governments 'examine the possibility of an agreement as to the limitation of armed Governor General W. Cameron Forbes forces by land and sea and of war budand Senor Osmena, president of the as- gets." and address themselves to the serious study of this pressing question Accordingly we ask our government to consider whether the peculiar position herself from the ice pack off the entrance which it occupies among the nations does to St. Johns harbor, in which she had not afford it a special opportunity to lead been imprisoned for two days. the building of the capitol they saw the the way toward making these weighty declarations a basis of public and concerted action.'

NOT IN VENEZUELAN JAIL.

Sailors Probably a Hoax.

The story, alleged to have been told by an American seaman named Payne. of the imprisonment in Venezuela of the crew of the American schooner Carrie D. Knowles, is probably a hoax, according to the State Department.

Venezuela. He says the Venezuela for- free. All night there was constant com-SEATTLE, Wash., May 21.—Armed eign office declares it has been unable to motion in the great field, the big bergs with a small base ball bat, Miss Clara obtain any information on the subject and twisting and turning, while the pressure Anderson, a servant in the household of not a single United States consular of- on the steamer was greater than ever be-L. S. Schwatacher, vice president of a ficer in that country has any information fore. wholesale hardware company, attacked confirmatory of any material feature of jewelry estimated to be worth $2,000 the list of prisoners kept by the Vene- For the first hour or two it was slow zuelan department of the interior in charge of prisons Minister Russell has received many cablegrams from persons and newspapers in getting farther off shore the floes opened the United States asking for information on the subject. In his report to the

> He points out that the reports of the alleged incarceration of these men fails to mention the port at which the schooner is said to have been taken or to the prison where the crew is said to be unable to obtain any confirmation of the

TO ELEVATE AWNINGS.

Plea for Women's Headgear. Special Dispatch to The Star.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 21.-Because sion in the Senate for more than a month, the low-hanging awnings of Wheeling fortunate, as the conditions last night and yet less than one-tenth of it has streets cause embarrassment to the were very threatening, and an easterly been agreed upon. The original plan of "waste-basket" style of headgear in Mr. Aldrich to get through with the bill vogue this season, Col. J. H. Devore, a and have it on the statute books by the member of the city council, has persuaded 1st of June has, of course, been entirely the board of public works to proceed with abandoned, and now it is admitted that no the measurement of the awnings and time for adjournment can be fixed even cause them to be elevated if necessary. President Authorizes the Appoint- MBississippi's Men Guests of the City The awnings were no trouble ast year. Every effort, however, is being made by when the flat "merry widows" were the

Weston Plodding Through Colorado. CHEYENNE WELLS, Col., May 21 .-After a stop of fifteen hours at this place, ship in the classified service without ex-NAIROBI, British East Africa, May 21. Edward Payson Weston, veteran pedes--Theodore Roosevelt and his son Kermit trian, resumed his westward journey toare continuing their hunting excursions day, expecting to reach Boyero, Col.,

Grandslam Fails to Get Place.

PARIS, May 21 .- P. P. Thorne's Grandslam ran in the Prix Lafnette at Mai-

FREE FROM ICE PACK CAPE MAY PIER DEMOLISHED GRAFT SHOCKS

Comparative Safety.

Two Days.

LYING OFF ST. JOHNS HARBOR and beach strand.

Vessel to Head Down Coast Toward Bay Bulls.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 21.-The Allan Line steamer Mongolian early today freed

The Mongolian, after releasing herself, did not make any attempt to enter St. Johns harbor, ice conditions making such a course apparently impracticable. The steamer worked off shore and at 8 a.m. Story of Imprisonment of American was making slow progress toward the south through the heavy drift ice. It was believed on shore that the steamer was proceeding toward Bay Bulls, eighteen miles south of St. Johns, where there was a possibility of her making a harbor.

Swell Breaks Up the Pack. The heavy eastern swell which set in Dispatches have just been received from last night broke up the ice pack and en-Mr. Russell, United States minister to abled the Mongolian to shake herself Dawn revealed open water within few miles of the steamer. A little later a lead opened, out through which the work as the ice was still heavy and continually driving in on the steamer. On out more, and at 8 a.m., with fairly clear water, the Mongolian swung around and headed down the coast and around Cape Spear in the direction of Bay Bulls. It miles south, but her captain decided to keep on to the more sheltered harbor of Bay Bulls, where it is expected that the steamer will remain until the mouth of St. Johns harbor is cleared of ice. Weather Favorable.

The weather today continued favorable, the wind holding light north, with a cloudy sky. In shipping circles the release of the Mongolian is looked upon as particularly gale would have seriously injured the

TO REMEDY AN INJUSTICE.

ment of Mrs. Nina L. Carrington.

President Taft has issued an order which permits the appointment to a clerkship in the classified service, without examination, of Mrs. Nina L. Carrington, wife of Frank DeL. Carrington, late major martial proceedings. The order says:

"Mrs. Nina L. Carrington, whose competency is certified to by those civil officers with whom she has had temporary employment, may be appointed to a clerkamination for the reason that her husband, Frank DeL Carrington, late major 1st United States Infantry, was unjustly convicted in the civil courts of the Philippines of certain criminal charges, as now decided by the Supreme Court, and this action is in the nature of a remedial measure within the power of the President to rectify the injustice of those proceedings which have led to the very ceive the Daughters of the Revolution, Mrs. Carrington and her family.

BATTERED DOWN BY BARGE LOOSED FROM MOORINGS.

Opera House at End Drops Early Into Surf-Damage Estimated at $25,000.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

pier in front of Capt May was almost totally demolished between 8:30 and 9:30 o'clock this morning, in sight of thousands of people who lined the boardwalk The barge Robert Campbell, belonging to the Breakwater Construction Company of New York, laden with 210 tons of Many Foreigners Involved-Press stone for the Cape May harbor entrance, being built by the government, broke away from its moorings in the night. Before the strong northeast wind and high-running tide the barge was driven along the beach for a distance of two miles until it struck the pier Post after post was battered down by the action of the wind and waves surging about the barge. The damage will amount to about $25,000. The opera house on the end of the pier

was nearly the first part of the pier to TO BUILD FOUR DREADNOUGHTS

BRITISH CABINET WILL START WORK WITHOUT DELAY.

Superior Council of French Navy Decides to Increase Number of Battlteships to 38.

Dreadnoughts mentioned in the naval es- spent in bribery. timates shall be laid down before the end of the fiscal year.

When the navy estimates were presented last March it was found that the prestige. government plan was to lay down four Dreadnoughts this year and to ask the Spear in the direction of Bay Bulls. It permission of parliament to prepare in was thought at first that the Mongolian the course of the year for the building might try to run into Petty harbor, five of four more, which might, in case of necessity, be laid down in April, 1910, their armament and building material having been collected meanwhile.

> PARIS, May 21.-The superior council of the navy has decided on a program French battleships up to thirty-eight, a brought about a somewhat hopeful contotal that would insure France fourth dition in Japan. Hitherto the loose con- James Jourdan and Col. A. G. Payne. rets, those aft to be superimposed. The naval artillery experts, however, have so many foreigners as well as Japanese brought forward arguments in favor of sixteen 10.8-inch guns in eight turrets.

WELCOME TO BATTLESHIP. of Natchez.

NATCHEZ, Miss., May 21.-Natchez began her welcome to the battleship Mississippi last night with one of the most delightful receptions yet offered the officers of the big fighting machine, and continued it almost until daylight this morning. Not satisfied with entertaining, one of the hotels for the use of such of- and a number of arrests resulted. ficers as do not desire to return on board o'clock this morning a tug drew along-side the warship and unloaded huge bunches of flowers for the officers' messroom and for the sick bays.

Visitors early began to come aboard, and in a short time it was estimated that about 8,000 were in different parts of the vessel. Later there was an automobile ride for the officers, followed by an elaborate luncheon at the Prentiss Club, which lasted until after 4 o'clock. Then the officers hurried to the vessel to re-

Members of Parliament Arrested in Sugar Scandal.

NO MERCY TO BE SHOWN

CAPE MAY, N. J., May 21.—The ocean Exposure Expected to Purify Oriental Business Methods.

$60,000 SPENT FOR BRIBERY ordinary customs of the Unitarian Church.

Lauds Attitude of Government in Matter.

TOKIO, Monday, May 19 .- Day by day the scope of what now is known as the 'sugar scandal' increases. The arm of high and low to arrest and expose those responsible for the most gigantic series of irregularities ever brought to light in Aroused by public sentiment the government authorities are leaving no stone unturned and showing no mercy in the expose. One member of parliament after another is placed under arrest. The constitutional party, which carried everything before it in the last session of the diet, has been the chief sufferer and will find it extremely difficult to rally under the blaw. There have been arrested so far twenty members of parliament and six directors of the company

$60,000 Spent in Bribery. A determined effort has been made for the last two sessions of the diet to na-LONDON, May 21.-Premier Asquith, tionalize the sugar company, that is to Foreign Secretary Grey and popular opin- say, to get the government to take it over ion, according to the Pall Mall Gazette, from the stockholders. It appears from have overcome the scruples of the ultra- confessions alleged to have been made economists in the ministry, and the cabi- by arrested directors that in order to net has decided that the four contingent bring this about a sum of $60,000 was The names of some fifty members of parliament, it is understood, have been mentioned in this connection. Even the upper house suffers a certain loss of

> The charges against the directors are fraud. falsification of private documents and disgracing their office. Among other things, dividends were not paid out of legitimate funds, but were distributed for the sake of throwing up the value of the stock to benefit speculators. A large number of foreign-

May Purify Business.

This last development has involved that the widespread publicity and the outcry of the foreigners is likely to have an exceedingly beneficial result. The newspapers of Japan are loud in their praise of the action of the government in arresting the offenders.

PARIS STRIKERS DESTRUCTIVE Endanger Life by Unscrewing Valve of Reservoir.

PARIS, May 21.-The strikers in Paris made several attempts today to invade the factories and buildings where men they have reserved suites of rooms at had refused to quit work. Minor riots Following the advice of their leaders, property. A number of telegraph poles were torn down last night and a valve in the air reservoir of the subway under the Seine was unscrewed.

Fortunately, this was discovered and that out of the 9,000,000 workmen in France only 900,000 are unionized, and that less than one-third of these belong straitened and necessitous condition of who were to present them with a set of to unions affiliated with the General Fed-Mrs. Carrington and her family. exquisite candelabra eration of Labor. eration of Labor.

RESPECT PAID ROGERS DRAWS A CONTRAST

Standard Oil Work Suspended Culberson Compares Princiat Funeral Hour.

EMPLOYES IDLE ATTITUDE ON THE TARIFF 67,000

Captains of Industry Attend Obse- Denounces the Protection Doctrine quies at Unitarian Church.

J. D. ROCKEFELLER IS ABSENT PRONOUNCES IT PATERNALISM

Further Ceremonies at Fairhaven, Mass., Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, May 21.-The funeral of Henry H. Rogers, president of the Amalhead of the Standard Oil Company, toinent in the business and financial districts of this city, to honor the memory suance of which the republicans are framof the man who had won their admira- ing the new tariff bill. tion, not only for his unusual energy, courage and business ability, but because of likable qualities as an associate and friend.

the Church of the Messiah at 10 o'clock for revenue only. was limited to intimate business associates and personal friends, these included so many of the leaders of the New York business and financial world that their absence from their usual activities had a democratic party," he began, noticeable effect upon the business of the financial district.

Throughout the country, wherever the Standard Oil Company had a station or a branch, there was a pause during the hours of the funeral to mark the passing of the first vice president of the company, and one of the men who had he'ped materially to make it a great organi that all operations of the company should cease between 10 and 12 o'clock. These applied to every one of the 67,000 employes-a condition which has not existed in the giant corporation since its foundation, more than thirty-five years principles of the party were deeper than

John D. Rockefeller could not attend he funeral, as he is in Hot Springs, Va., with Mrs. Rockefeller, whose convalescence from a severe illness would not permit him to leave her. He sent, however, a long telegram to Mrs. Rogers, expressing his grief.

Services at Church.

The funeral cortege left the Rogers home, at 3 East 78th street, at 9:30 a.m., croachment on the right of the states and and proceeded to the Church of the Messiah, on East 34th street, where Rev. Dr. power. Robert Collyer, pastor emeritus, a friend

During the services a quartet from the lections, including the hymns of "Lead, Kindly Light," "Nearer, My God, to Thee" and "Abide with Me."

Light, "Nearer, My God, to Denounced as P The observances in the church were exceedingly simple, and followed closely the Dr. Collyer's Tribute. "It is no time for a sermon," said Dr. Collyer, "only for some words about a dear friend. Dr. Collyer spoke in a voice breaking with emotion at times as he referred to the numerous incidents which occurred during his long friendship with the dead

"I found him one of the truest men I ever met in my life," said the minister. "He was ever quietly and generously the law is being stretched into places charitable, always doing good things through others and avoiding the public knowledge of his biggest acts.' Dr. Collyer referred to Mr. Rogers many benefactions to his home town at Fairhaven, Mass., and spoke feelingly about the splendid church which he had built there to the memory of his motherthe church in which services will be held Affection for Family.

"He was a mother's boy," said Dr. Collyer, "and seldom let more than a few weeks slip by without visiting her in Fairhaven. He told me once that the sweetest memory of his life was the remembrance of the light in the window which always welcomed him home to his wife and child when he first went into the oil regions of Pennsylvania."

Dr. Collyer spoke of the dead man's great fondness for children, and said the school children in Fairhaven all had loved him

"How glad I am to say these things about him before you all, many of whom have been his neighbors and business associates," said Dr. Collyer, in concluding his remarks. "The memory of his friendship will grow sweeter as the years pass by, and the good things he has done will never be forgotten."

One hundred officers and employes of the Standard Oil Company attended the church services in a body. Among some of the well known men present were William Rockefeller, Percy Rockefeller, Dallas B. Pratt, Anthony N. Brady, Nathan Straus, George F. Baker and John D. Rockefeller, jr. On the list of pallbearers were the names of William Rockefeller, John D.

Archbold, E. T. Bedford and James A Moffett of the Standard Oil Company Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), E. H Harriman, Elbert H. Gary, Melville E. Stone, James M. Beck, John D. Ryan, Charles A. Peabody, George W. Perkins. Dr. C. C. Rice, Raymond du Puy, Gen. the time over on that side, anyhow. world. It is proposed to lay down in 1910 duct of business in which the public was The Lotus Club, of which r. Rogers was two 21,000-ton vessels of an enlarged invited to invest was not considered as a member, sent a number of its mem-Danton type. The armament has not yet been decided on, but the council is in favor of twelve 12-inch guns in six turrets, those aft to be superimposed. The Mr. Rogers in the building of his Vir- twice and three times as long as Congress ginian railroad, came to attend the funeral.

> Interment at Fairhaven. Services will be held tomorrow in Fair-haven, Mass., before the interment. The body of Mr. Rogers was taken to Fairhaven, his native place and his legal residence at his death, after the funeral service at the Church of the Messiah. The immediate family, composed of the widow, H. H. Rogers, jr., and Mr. Rogers'

three married daughters, made the trip to Fairhaven. Some twenty-five of Mr. feetly astounding. Rogers' immediate friends accompanied them. The party left New York on a who has invested his money in a factory special train over the New York, New and got no returns on it for a number of Haven and Hartford at 11:15 o'clock. Fairhaven is the coast town, opposite ginia. ship after the evening events. Before 6 the strikers are beginning to destroy New Bedford, where Mr. Rogers was Mr. Bailey replied that he had not born, and where, returning in later life, heard of any such case. he took up his legal residence and expended large sums for the town's benefit. Here, as Mr. Rogers planned, he will be buried in the Riverside cemetery. Tomorrow the body of Mr. Rogers will remedied, else the workmen entering the lie in state during the morning at the calsson would have been subjected to great danger. The government today publishes reassuring statistics showing viewed by the Fairhaven school children and from 11 to 1 o'clock by the other in-

> At 2:30 o'clock the Rev. Frank L. Phalen, pastor of the memorial church, will conduct services. Interment will follow. meant to insinuate that Mr. Scott was inhabitants.

Weather.

Rain tonight and Saturday; cool, with brisk east and northeast winds.

ples of the Parties.

of the Republicans,

Illness of Wife Keeps Him Away. Declares His Party Makes No War on Wealth, But Would Uphold Rights of Individuals.

Senator Culberson of Texas, leader of the democratic party in the Senate, this gamated Copper Company and active morning laid down the principles of that party, as he understood them, and told day, brought together many men prom- the Senate how they are diametrically opposed to the protective doctrine in pur-son declared that although individual democrats might favor free trade or protection for certain articles, the demo-Although attendance at the services in cratic party stood squarely for a tariff He said he would occupy but a few minutes in submitting his views. "I shall state at the outset my conception of the fundamental principles of the "I thought the senator said he was going to occupy but a few minutes," smiled Senator Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee. Mr. Culberson replied that he guessed he could speak as long as he chose. Principles of the Democratic Party. The democratic party, he said, was the historic states' rights party, but was not that alone. He held it was not the "federal party." but essentially the "party of the Constitution," but that the organic that, resting upon the idea of political and religious freedom for all mankind. He said the party recognized the tendency of all government to encroach on the rights of the individual and held the government to be best which governs least.

In the course of his speech Mr. Culber-

On the other hand, said Mr. Culberson like the old federal and whig parties, the republican party antagonizes these principles, fostering paternalism, the creation of favorite and privileged classes, enthe centralization of an often despotio

In the pending tariff bill Mr. Culbers declared the irreconcilable ideas of the of the dead capitalist, conducted the fu- two parties were apparent. He held that neral service according to the Unitarian the doctrine of protection, by which noney is taken from the great mass of the consumers to enrich manufacturers Mendelssohn Glee Club sang several se- and producers, was contrary to the gen-

Denounced as Paternalism.

The average existing ad valorem rate, he sald, on all articles was 44.88 per cent, making the people pay to the manufacturers a total of $500,000,000 annually, of which the sugar trust gets $30 .-000,000, the oil trust $20,000,000 and the steel trust $80,000,000. The average rate in the proposed measure, he stated, was even higher, being 46 per cent on all articles.

enormously, and enabled the American producers to sell at a lower rate abroad than at home, and made it possible for a favorite class to amass vast fortunes, by which the protective system is fastened more firmly on the country. "The democratic party makes no war

Such a policy, he claimed, was the worst form of paternalism. It had raised the price of all articles to the consumers on wealth." he declared in closing. "Nor would it embitter capital and labor, but it would dissolve this partnership between the government and protected in-terests and protect the individual rights of citizens."

Little Parlimentary Mix-Up. Early in the proceedings today the desire of the advocates of the finance committee's tariff rates for quick action resulted in a parliamentary mix-up, in which Senators Root of New York, Beveridge of Indiana and Rayner of Maryland figured. Mr. Root is in a hurry to get through with the bill, and Mr. Beveridge is one of those "progressives" who say they will stay here all summer in La Follette of Wisconsin was discussing the rate on carbons. Mr. Beveridge had interrupted the Wisconsin senator several times, when Mr. Root called him to order, announcing that he must get recognition from the chair every time he wanted to ask a question of another sen-"I don't understand," declared Mr. Bev-order to pass the right sort of a bill.

Mr. Root was in the chair, and Senator eridge, emphatically, "what authority there is for that sort of cloture in this Mr. Root did not reply. A few minutes later Senator Rayner of Maryland interrupted Mr. La Follette, first saying "Mr.

President" in a low voice, but not waiting to get recognized or to find out whether Mr. La Follette would yield. "I call the senator from Maryland to order!" cried Mr. Beveridge. This made Mr. Rayner angry, and he remarked sarcastically: "It is a pity the senator from Indiana time than that. He is wasting most of Mr. Beveridge did not answer, and the debate proceeded evenly.

During the discussion of the rate on intended, and had obtained; the sanction of the courts of this practice. He referred to the importers as being constantly desirous of tearing down the American tariff. Scott Taken as an Example. This observation led Senator Bailey of Texas to remark that in his opinion both the importer and the manufacturer were useful citizens, but that neither should be allowed to put his hand into the public profits of some manufacturers were per-"Has the senator ever heard of a man years?" asked Mr. Scott of West Virtreasury. Mr. Bailey declared that the

"The senator from West Virginia." added Mr. Bailey, "is a splendid example of how prosperous manufacturers can become in this country."

"I might as well announce here and now," said Mr. Scott, "that while I am now used as the president of a factory in which I once was actively interested, my connection is now nominal. I don't own enough stock in the manufacturing business-in glass-to give the senator a comfortable living for six months." Mr. Bailey observed that he had no